

House Resolution No. 2456

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Joseph Donald "Joe Don" McGaugh, a Junior at the University of Missouri-Columbia, has distinguished himself as a Legislative Intern for the Honorable John Quinn, State Representative from the 7th District; and

Whereas, Joe Don McGaugh joined Representative Quinn for the First Regular Session of the Ninety-third General Assembly as part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Joe Don McGaugh has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, a reliable and conscientious young man, Joe Don McGaugh has successfully demonstrated his abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as an office assistant, conducting Capitol tours, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Quinn run as smoothly and efficiently as possible; and

Whereas, a 2002 graduate of Carrollton R-VII High School, Joe Don McGaugh is an exemplary student at the University of Missouri-Columbia where he is active in the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity, the College of Agriculture Student Council, the Alumni Association Student Board, College Republicans, Collegiate Farm Bureau, and the CAFNR Outstanding Junior and Mortar Board; and

Whereas, a proud recipient of the Star Chapter Farmer and State 4-H Key awards, Joe Don McGaugh has achieved all of this and more with the love and support of his parents, David and Peggy McGaugh; his sister, Jocelyn; and his grandparents, Ben and Frances McGaugh and Louis and Norma Kendrick;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in commending Joe Don McGaugh for his many important contributions to the Missouri State Legislature during the current legislative session; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Joseph Donald "Joe Don" McGaugh, as a mark of our esteem for him.
